2019 Lokh sabha election held in india in seven phases from 11 April to 19 May 2019 to elect the members

The main contenders were two alliance groups of the Incumbent National Democratic Alliance and the Opposition United Progressive Alliance and Indian National Congress

The 17 th Lokh sabha result declared on 23 may 2019. BJP led NDA (National Democratic Alliance) had won the election with 333 seats. The alliance had 45 % of total votes polled.

This election has the highest ever number of women politicians with a total of 78 which is nearly 14%. The average age of 17th Lok Sabha is noted to be 54 years and 12% of MPs are below the age of 40.

We have the better constituency by selecting the best candidate with our votes.

We have 85 % of candidates as first timers in 17 th Lokh sabha and 3440 candidates are independents.

We got lot of women politicians. Which is increasing gradually year by year. The number of women candidates has raised in those years.

I think we have a better india in future by getting more youngsters as a politician.
